LESSON FOR JUNE 22

The best gift of the Holy Spirit is reinstated at once the love of God shed abroad in our hearts. Not all can teach, preach, work miracles, speak with tongues; of all. The "more excellent way" of the last verse of chapter 12 is the way made along the Columbia rive of love. Love is not a mere senti- by the Indians from a mos ment or emotion, but a mighty dynamic which transforms the Mfe, ex that grows on the spruce t pressing itself in practical service to tree. II. The Attributes of Love (vv. 47). 1. It is long-suffering and kind. It means not only to bear long but to be kind all the while. Patience is a remarkable virtue. It is much easier to bear long than to show the spirit of kindness all the white.

2. It is free from envy. Those who love are free from that envy which is engendered because of the good, or the

4. It is well behaved. Love is polite and mannerly. It knows how to behave at all times.

5. It is unselfish. Love seeks the good of others and is forgetful of self.

6. Does not give way to passion. It is not quick tempered. It is not easily aroused to recently aroused to recently aroused to recently aroused to recently aroused to exist and that character is not allowed to count. Prophecy, as prediction, will be fulfilled; prophecy, as teaching, will be brought to an end in the day when teaching is not needed. "And they shall not teach every man his neighest" (Heb. 8:11; cf. Jer. 81:84).
Tongues shall cease, for as the languages of earth were caused by God's judgment for sin so shall Christ's redemption bring the nations back to one tongue. Knowledge shall be done away with by a wider and nobler intelligence. The twilight shall be lost in the day. Childhood shall be lost in maturity, for at Christ's coming we
